BUCHU IS A STIMULANT, and of itself

may fail to effect a cure, but Buchu,

when judiciously combined with Bromide of Potassium and other ingredients, produces a salutary effect, and causes a healthy action, thus increasing the powers of digestion, allaying irritation, reducing all unnatural swellings, opening up the bowels, and causing the repairs and nutriments in the human body to be greater than the wastes, thus preventing decomposition and decay, and gives nourishment, health and vigor to the system.

BUCHU is good for all diseases arising from excesses such as Weakness, and Pain in the Back and Legs, Trembling in the limbs, Headache, Nervousness, Scrofula,

Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Scrofula,

Syphilis, in its many forms, Ulcers, and

If your system is affected by any of the above symptoms and diseases, relief is at

"Pay Your Rent or Jail You Go."

Under this caption the last number of the Carrollton Democrat has the following remarkable account of a recent transaction in Carroll county:

On affidavit of D. B. Armstrong that George W. Miller, James Wells, Joseph Peard, A. N. Broad, and Bruce Bradley, came to the house of William Webb in this county, and in a forcible and violent manner, and by threats and menaces of arresting the affiant, Armstrong, compelled him to surrender to them fifty dollars in money, his property against his will and consent, and without authority of law, Judge Fisher issued a warrant for the arrest of these parties on the charge of robbery.

They were arrested the latter part of last week, and gave bond for their appearance; and on Monday, accompanied by a considerable part of the population of Carroll, and a number of witnesses from Milton, appeared at the court house, in Carrollton, to answer the charge. The prosecution was skillfully conducted by our county attorney, Mr. Orr, and the defense by Capt. McCain, county attorney of Trumbull county, assisted by Judge Masterson.

From the proof it appeared that Armstrong was indebted to Bradley some forty dollars for rent; that he had refused to pay it, that Bradley applied for an attachment against his tobacco; that the attachment had been issued by Louis P. Sarlis, Esq., a justice of the peace for the Milton district, but that before it could be levied, Armstrong had sold the tobacco to Wm. Newman, of Carroll county, and pocketed the proceeds, amounting to about two hundred and twenty-five dollars. Bradley then instituted, proceeded in order to compel him to deliver up the money due for rent, and a warrant to that effect was accordingly issued by Squire Sarlis, but as no officer was at hand to execute it, Geo. W. Miller was appointed special constable to make the arrest.

He overtook Armstrong on his way from Milton, near Snyder's, in Trumbull county, showed him the writ, and attempted to arrest him. Armstrong, being accompanied by several friends, who encourage him to resist, he refused to submit, and Miller was unable to take him into custody. Thereupon, Miller found James Wells, Joseph Peard, A. N. Broad, Bruce Bradley, and summoned them to not as a posse to assist him in taking Armstrong. They then proceeded, in search of that individual, into Carroll county, and about 8 o'clock that night found him at the house of Wm. Webb. They informed him that he would either have to pay the rent money and costs or go back with them to Trumbull. He preferred the former, and handed them fifty dollars, for which they gave him a receipt, Miller telling him that if it was more than enough to pay the debt and costs, he should have the surplus back. They then left, and Miller returned the money and writ to Squire Sarlis. Judge Fisher, after hearing the evidence, of which the foregoing is the substance, dismissed the case, remarking, very properly that it contained none of the elements of a robbery.

About Advertising.
From the Sentinel, published at Shelbyville, Ky., we clip the following upon the subject of "Advertising in Kentucky":

The Louisville Ledger says the advertisements in all the newspapers of Louisville combined would not make a favorable comparison with the paying advertisements in any one of the papers that could be named either at St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Memphis, or Indianapolis. We suppose this is so. In fact, the distinction between an advertiser in general in Kentucky, when what was known as the Advertising bill (requiring the publication in a newspaper of sheriff's and commissioner's sales, &c.) was before the Legislature, a prominent member denounced it as a scheme for the benefit of newspaper publishers. We need scarcely add that the bill was defeated. About that time prominent gentleman said to us: "This thing of making public a man's mistakes is all wrong, sir. I don't want to see my neighbor's property advertised at sheriff's sale in the newspapers." But the sale goes on, nevertheless, and in the absence of proper public notice, the property is frequently struck off at a price much below its actual value.

Too Much For the Devil.
This is Rev. Edward Hale's story: A man had sold himself to the devil, who was to possess him at a certain time, unless he could produce a question to his satanic majesty which he could not answer, he being allowed to put three queries to him. The time came for the devil to claim his own, and he consequently appeared. The first question the man asked was concerning theology, to which he answered the devil no trouble to reply. The second he also answered without hesitation. The man's fate depended on the third. What should it be? He hesitated and turned pale. Cold perspiration stood on his forehead, while he shivered anxiously, nervousness and terror, and the devil triumphantly sneered. At this juncture the man's wife appeared in the room with a bonnet on her head. Alarmed at her husband's condition she demanded to know the cause. When informed, she laughed and said: "I can propose a question which the devil himself cannot answer. 'Ask him which is the front of this bonnet?' The devil gave it up and retired in disgust, and the man was free."

Radical Enough.
English papers are talking about the right of the government to take the land of the country into its own hands, at any time, after giving a fair compensation to its owners, at the same time the expediency, they hold, to be a matter of question. This is the side of the Liberals, the other side set the idea down as incendiary, and declare that it simply amounts to confiscation. This land ownership is the ground on which a great political battle will yet be fought in England.

Justly Punished.—Seth W. Payne, editor of the Daily Bee, at Utica, N. Y., has been sent to the penitentiary for four months for libeling a judge. He charged Judge Doolittle with taking a bribe, and when told that could cost him no defense whatever, seeming to have been actuated by malice. Few papers will sympathize with the Bee man. Journalists seldom allow personal malice to force them into permitting libelous articles to appear, and when they do, they meet Mr. Payne's fate, the people and press will believe the sentence a just one.—Detroit Free Press.

Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catapwa Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar coats pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect, the Catapwa Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and clear and not nauseous, and being sugar-coated. Price fifty cents per box.

E. HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

Will radically exterminate from the system Scrophulous, Syphilitic, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Throat, Sore Legs, Sore Head, Brucitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swelling, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodules, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetters, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its blood-purifying properties are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color and restores the patient to a state of health and purity, for purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swellings of the limbs, eruptions of the throat and legs, blotches, pimples on the face, erysipelas and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

M. HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

THE GREAT MURKIN.
Has cured every case of dysuria, in which it has been given, irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflammation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostate gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, brick-dust deposit, and mucous or milky discharges, and in the decline or change of life, constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to urinate, loss of power, difficulty of urinating, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakefulness, dimness of vision, or in the decline or change of life, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, pallid countenance, universal lassitude of the muscular system, &c.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five, or in the decline or change of life, after confinement or labor pains, bed-wetting in children.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from impure blood, such as skin diseases, eruptions, and impurities in life, impurities of the blood, etc., superseding opium in affections for which it is used, and syphilis, in these diseases, used in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

LADIES.
In many affections peculiar to ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any remedy—as in chlorosis or retention, irregularity, painfulness or suppression of customary menstruation, or in a scheme for the benefit of newspaper publishers. We need scarcely add that the bill was defeated. About that time prominent gentleman said to us: "This thing of making public a man's mistakes is all wrong, sir. I don't want to see my neighbor's property advertised at sheriff's sale in the newspapers." But the sale goes on, nevertheless, and in the absence of proper public notice, the property is frequently struck off at a price much below its actual value.

But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing which renders it a Toilet Appendix of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficiency—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. MISSOURI REPUBLICAN.

Prospectus for 1872. Twenty-Four Grand Premiums.

The progress of the age is so marvellous and startling, exacts of journalism a commensurate spirit and enterprise, and such a powerful agent in relieving Commerce and Industry. Intimately identified with every effort for the advancement of the West and South, the Missouri Republican has long been the acknowledged rector and exponent of the material interests of those sections. But its sphere is not confined to the West and South. The concerns of the nation are discussed in its pages, and its columns are filled with the latest news of the world. It is the only paper in America which has long been the only true exponent in America.

In the discussion of the vital questions which must arise within the next twelve months the Missouri Republican will be found at the head of the column. Its mission is to enlighten the people, to inform them, to lead them, to reform, and to improve. Its political creed embraces those great principles of liberty and government which are the foundation of our Union, and of which the Democratic party has long been the only true exponent in America.
